

MU Libraries is seeking a Part-Time Library Information Specialist. Apply online at <https://hrs.missouri.edu/find-a-job/staff> with Job ID 33142.

Special Collections and Rare Books houses rare and unique materials that span over four thousand years. Materials in Special Collections total over 90,000 items. The collections are diverse and range from a substantial Rare Book Collection with material dating to the eighth century to the Comic Art Collection, focused on underground comics, classic comic strips, and graphic novels. The collections include books, periodicals, manuscripts, maps, posters, printed ephemera, and artifacts.

Special Collections supports teaching and research across a wide range of disciplines. Our work supports the University's instruction, research, service and economic development programs, from the life sciences to the humanities.
