

The background of the image shows a portion of a classical building facade, likely a library, with large windows and decorative architectural elements. A semi-transparent teal filter is applied over the entire image. Bare, thin branches with small, dark buds are visible in the upper right quadrant, adding a naturalistic touch to the architectural scene.

Whether you want to visit us
virtually or in person,
Mizzou Libraries
are here for you.